

ANCIENT GREECE

Greece was a fabulous place
A fabulous place, yes a fabulous place
Did lots of good for the human race
What a fabulous place was Greece.

Once upon a time on the Isle of Crete
In the Mediterranean, underneath Greece
They used to run at charging bulls and leap
Only Cretans lived in Crete.

Greece was a fabulous place
A fabulous place, yes a fabulous place
Did lots of good for the human race
Cretans jumped bulls all 'round the place
What a fabulous place was Greece.

Alexander thought he was Great
He was King of Macedonia from twenty years of age
Never lost a battle in a twelve year spate
He came from north of Greece.

Greece was a fabulous place
A fabulous place, yes a fabulous place
Did lots of good for the human race
Cretans jumped bulls all 'round the place
Alexander thought that he was Great
What a fabulous place was Greece.

G - R
G - R - E
G - R - E - E
G - R - E - E - C
G - R - E - E - C - E
Now, what does that spell to me?

GREECE was a fabulous place
A fabulous place, yes a fabulous place
Did lots of good for the human race
What a fabulous place was Greece.

Spartan men were taught to fight
Killed their kids if they didn't look right
They relied on their army's might
In the southern part of Greece.

Athens grew olives, figs and dates
Was a democratic state
Its army was good, but its navy was great
On the right hand side of Greece.

Greece was a fabulous place
A fabulous place, yes a fabulous place
Did lots of good for the human race
Cretans jumped bulls all 'round the place
Alexander thought that he was Great
Sparta and Athens were city states
What a fabulous place was Greece.

G - R
G - R - E
G - R - E - E
G - R - E - E - C
G - R - E - E - C - E
Now, what does that spell to me?

GREECE was a fabulous place
A fabulous place, yes a fabulous place
Did lots of good for the human race
What a fabulous place was Greece.

In Athens is a temple called the Parthenon
The Acropolis is the hill it's on
The Agora it looks down upon
That's a market place in Greece.

Greece was a fabulous place
A fabulous place, yes a fabulous place
Did lots of good for the human race
Cretans jumped bulls all 'round the place
Alexander thought that he was Great
Sparta and Athens were city states
The Agora was a market place
In the land of Ancient Greece.

What a fabulous place was Greece!